THE PROJECT

Corsica welcome MOMAr I Interregional event

The European programme MOMAr (Models of Management for Singular Rural Heritage) held its first interregional meeting in Corsica, France. The main objective was to generate an exchange of experiences in the field of heritage management models, within the framework of efficiency, sustainability and demographic fragility. But also, to learn about the Corsican territory and the particularities of the island's cultural and natural heritage, as a partner of the programme.

THE INTERVIEW

"We live in a globalized world in which one of the few things that can differentiate us is our heritage"

Tarazona Monumental Foundation manages the historical-artistic heritage of the city of Tarazona, in Zaragoza (Spain). This city is an open book that traces the history from the Iron Age to the present days, thanks to the survival of great civil and religious monuments. Currently, the Foundation is one of MOMAr's stakeholder. We spoke with its manager director, Julio Zaldívar, to learn more about the keys to its success.
