

DEAR READER,

Welcome to the fourth issue of CD-ETA E-bulletin, which features news from CD-ETA project activities and Europe. You received this E-bulletin because you have been included in a mailing list of potentially European stakeholders identified by CD-ETA project partners. If you wish to unsubscribe from this mailing list, please visit CD-ETA website.

On 17.10.2003 UNESCO accepted the Convention for preserving the intangible cultural heritage.

Art. 2. Definition: Intangible cultural heritage represents the customs, forms of representation and expression, knowledge and skills and related instruments, artifacts and cultural spaces – recognized and accepted by the communities, groups and in some cases individuals as part of their cultural heritage.

Specific fields :

- A) Oral traditions and forms of expression
- B) Artistic and performing art
- C) Social customs, rituals and celebrations
- D) Knowledge and customs related to nature and the universe
- E) Knowledge and skills related to traditional crafts

Art. 12. Every country – member under the Convention should establish a register of the intangible cultural heritage existing on its territory

Art.13. Every country – member under the Convention endeavors to adopt appropriate measures for the establishment of institutions for the documentation of intangible cultural heritage and facilitating the access to it.

Thematic seminar “Digitization of intangible cultural heritage”

The Third Thematic Seminar about Digitization of intangible cultural heritage of Interreg Europe project CD-ETA, “Collaborative Digitization of Natural and Cultural Heritage”, took place in Skofja Loka, Slovenia in October, ... more

All partners have presented the state of play and examples for good practices - see in folder “Presentations - 4”

During the seminar have been shared 3 more good practices for digitization of intangible cultural heritage: Batana, Nexto—Cultural engagement platform and Register of the ICH of Slovenia - see in folder “Best practices”

UPCOMING EVENTS

13-15 March 2018: Thematic seminar "Digitization of historical sites"

Organizer: University of Patra

We expect to participate about 30 stakeholders from all partner's country.