

Media Release in InnoCity <http://innocity.hu/>

Publishing date: 03/09/2017

We are currently in the REBUS conference in Malmö, where the Swedish colleagues share their experiences of energy saving solutions of public institutions!

Learn more at <https://www.facebook.com/interregeuroperebus/>

The project is funded by Interreg Europe, supported by the European Regional Development Fund, co-financed by the European Union and Hungary.

"Good Practice in Focus" - REBUS Local Action Planning Group 2. Workshop, Budapest

The Local Action Plans Group, established in September last year, for REBUS (REnovation for energy efficient BUildings), a project funded by the INTERREG EUROPE program, for the energy efficiency improvement of public buildings and the capacity building of public administration employees, is the Borsod-Abaúj-Zemplén County Development Agency and the ENERGIAKLUB Policy Institute and the Methodological Center held on February 22, 2017 2. Workshop in Budapest.

Read more:

<http://innocity.hu/rebus-interreg-europa/>