- The contribution of CCIs to CCT has not been given the attention it deserves to date. Cultural tourism needs CCIs to partially reinvent itself and attract the new generations
- CCIs are also an indispensable source of innovation for other types of sustainable tourism, typically 'Creative Tourism'
- Creative Tourism is considered a new generation of cultural tourism by involving the tourists themselves and the locals in the creation of the tourist products (cocreation)
- CCIs are in a strategic position to promote smart, sustainable and inclusive growth in all EU regions and cities, and thus contribute fully to the Europe 2020 Strategy and beyond, through their deployment for CCT
- While some EU regions have been very good at tapping into this extraordinary potential as a way to promote socio-economic development, it however, appears that many others have not been making most of this potential
- Synergies between sustainable tourism and CCIs can enhance the visibility and promotion of CCT. These synergies can contribute to the promotion of sustainable tourism destinations, attraction of new investment and creation of new employment opportunities, particularly for youth and in lagging regions

‘Cultural and Creative Industries’ (CCIs) refer to:

- design
- crafts
- digital products

- design and manufacturing of fashion materials and goods and their distribution
- in particular high-end fashion
- jewellery and watches
- accessories
- leather goods
- perfumes and cosmetics
- furniture and household appliances
- cars
- boats
- gastronomy
- hotels and leisure

To redeploy CCIs for the development and promotion of CCT strategies, with:

- Sustainability of tourism
- Innovations throughout
- Capitalisation of good practices
- Policy learning and implementation
- Capacity building for partners' staff and key stakeholders

Sub – Objectives

2. To exploit the results of exchange of experience with capitalisation, for integrated improvement of regional and local policies and strategies.

6. To apply and transfer the results of the exchange of experience and make them available to a wider audience of public authorities, destinations and stakeholders across Europe & beyond.
7. To contribute relevant results and outputs to the Policy Learning Platform of the programme.
8. To support, integrate and provide added value to relevant initiatives at EU Level regarding influence on Structural Funds Programmes.
9. To disseminate the Project's outputs and results beyond the interregional partnership and throughout the EU, and thus influence policymakers in other regions, EU Institutions (EP, CoR, EC), Council of Europe (CoE), international bodies (UNESCO, UNWTO), destination management authorities, and relevant pan-European networks (European Heritage Alliance 3.3, European Tourism Manifesto for Growth & Jobs).
10. To support the activities of the 'European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018' & its legacy.
