La Filature 2.0 (Ronchamps): is a major new Rural Digital and Redevelopment Hub, with a Fab Lab, Co-Working Space in a former textile site with a focus on 'digital and innovation self sufficiency' http://lafilature.city/;

The Innovation Crunch Lab of the Technical University of Belfort Monbéliard (Sevenans) is a one-stop shop to facilitate access to the skills and resources of the UTBM for all audiences, from large companies to citizens, SMEs, Micro-businesses and entrepreneurs,

"makers", Start-UPpers, students, schools, NGO's. Its aim is to create an innovation environment to encourage unlikely encounters to think innovation differently.

The Crunchlab also aims to bring together and coordinate the service offerings of local innovation structures in this rural corner of France. Living Lab, Maker Space, Fab Lab, Co-Working Space enhanced by access to skills, training and innovation events. Crunchlab helps extend the digital innovation ecosystem and interact university-based skills + resources with rural ideas hence the 'Idéation' concept.
